

Testimonial – Public Service

With customers looking to non-traditional media outlets to receive information and messaging, Signal Outdoor's options have served as the perfect platform for the American Heart Association to generate awareness. The Bus Shelter advertising has allowed our organization to be strategic with our target communities. We are thankful to have this unique opportunity for outreach.

Nancy DeVault

Communications & Marketing Director

American Heart Association / American Stroke Association

